TREHY'S APPEAL IS DENIED BY COURT

Supreme Tribunal Upholds Mandamus Issued by Judge McLemore.

MUST SHOW THE LIST.

Richard W. Peatross, Defeated By One Hundred Votes, Will Contest Election.

Richmond, Nov. 13.—That poll books are public documents, and, consequently, accessible on demand to any citizen, was established yesterday afternoon when the State Supreme Court of Appeals refused to reverse the decision of Judge McLemore, of the Circuit Court of the city of Norfolk, ordering James V. Trehy, clerk of the Corporation Court of Norfolk, to surrender the poll books in the recent election to Richard W. Peatross. In the State election of November 4, Trehy was re-elected over Peatross, candidate of the Citizens' party, by a majority of 93 votes in 7,512 cast. Peatross has given notice of his purpose to contest the election, but when his attorneys went to Trehy to obtain the poll books to be used in preparing the petition for a recount, they were refused permission to see them.

Counsel for the defeated candidate at once applied to Judge McLemore for a writ of mandamus to compel Trehy to surrender the poll books for inspection. This writ was granted on Tuesday afternoon. Trehy's attorney, Walter H. Taylor insisted upon taking an appeal to the State Supreme Court, and presented his argument yesterday morning to the full court. Inspired to haste by the fact that Peatross must file his notice of contest before tomorrow, the judges of the Supreme Court went into conference immediately, and unanimously agreed to affirm Judge McLemore's decision.

This action by the Supreme Court means that Trehy, as custodian of poll books, must today surrender for the inspection of his opponent the records of persons voting in the recent election. The suspension of the mandamus allowed by Judge McLemore expires this afternoon, and Petross's attorney can then peruse the poll books at will. It is expected that the defeated candidate will file his petition for contest tomorrow.

Immediately after it became known in Norfolk yesterday afternoon that the Supreme Court had denied Mr. Trehy's application for a writ of error in the mandamus proceedings James E. Heath, of counsel for the Citizens' candidates, took up with Mr. Trehy's counsel the question of whether the court clerk would insist upon waiting until the expiration of the Circuit Court's suspending order before permitting inspection of the poll books. Mr. Heath stated later that he had been assured that Mr. Trehy's attorneys would advise the court clerk to allow the examination of the books to begin at once. A few hours afterward the Citizens' lawyers were notified that Mr. Trehy would permit them to commence the examination immediately, and shortly before 9 o'clock last night they began work.

Mr. Trehy last night issued the following statement:

"I declined to exhibit the poll books to counsel for Mr. Peatross because I was advised by my counsel that I had no right to do so.

"Having heard that the Court of Appeals has decided otherwise although the official mandate of the Court of Appeals has not come down to Norfolk, and although the order suspending the mandamus still remains in force, I am ready to facilitate the examination of the poll books in every way, and have offered to allow the inspection to begin tonight, though Judge McLemore's order provided that the examination should be made only between the hours of 8 a. m., and 6 p. m.

"I am entirely satisfied that the most careful examination of this election will show that I was duly elected, in spite of the fact that every pretext is now sought by which to wrest from me the office that I have fairly won."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Twenty-two passengers were injured, fourteen seriously and two fatally, when a passenger train on the Allegan division of the Pere Marquette Railroad plunged down a fifteen-foot embankment near Holland, Mich., and turned over early yesterday. Spreading rails caused the accident.

Probably more than 150 lives were lost in the blizzard which swept over the Great Lakes and Middle West. Fifty-two lives were lost alone in the foundering of the steamers James Carruthers and the Charles S. Price, off the Canadian shore. Each boat carried twenty-six persons, all of whom were lost. Wreckage washed ashore and bodies found on the coast near Grand Bend prove beyond doubt that the two boats have broken up.

Two men were killed and three fatally injured yesterday by an explosion of dynamite in a Lackawanna Railroad cut near Nicholson, Pa.

The Russian Duma has rejected a proposal designed to give rights to Jewish subjects of the Czar equal to those enjoyed by all others. The bill was rejected by a vote of 152 to 92.

Three masked men broke into the residence of Phillip Stakeley, West Bridgewater, Pa., early yesterday, and after binding his hands behind his back and tying him to a chair, burned his feet until he disclosed the hiding place of his money. Then they beat him and left. Stakely, who resided alone in the small house was reputed to have considerable money, and, being afraid of banks, had it hidden in the house. Stakely finally managed to free himself of his bonds, and notified Chief of Police Daniel Baker, who summoned a posse and tracked the robbers through the snow to Fallston, a suburb. As the posse came within sight of the three men the robbers opened a revolver duel with the officers. Fifty shots were fired before the officers succeeded in capturing two of the men. The other escaped.

Attorney-General McReynolds was asked yesterday by Representative Evans, of Montana, to interfere with the whipping of six Delaware convicts set for Saturday. Representative Evans said that although he had introduced a resolution in the house he did not believe Congress could act before Saturday. The Department of Justice notified him that numerous decisions by the Supreme Court held the prohibition in the Constitution could not be applied to punishment of criminals by State authorties.

A dispatch from Weston, W. Va., says that this section regained communication with the outside world late yesterday, having been cut off by heavy snow since last Saturday night. Snow fell to a depth of from 33 to 48 inches, and in places it badly drifted. Trolley and railroad travel is still delayed and uncertain.

Eggs were sold for as high as 75 cents a dozen in the Phladelphia market Tuesday. Dairy and Food Commissioner Foust declared that 90 per cent of the 10,000,000 dozen or more eggs in cold storage in Philadelphia, are April eggs, and, under the law, must be sold before December 1.

The Daily Express, of London, prints sensational dispatches from a correspondent who has been trying to enter Somaliland to investigate the conditions which led to the recent cutting up of the British camel corps. The correspondent declares that horrors rivaling the Congo atrocities have been committed on tribes friendly to the British in Somalliland by the Mad Mullah, and the British government is seeking to prevent the facts from becoming known by excluding all newspaper men.

Liquor will not be sold in the Home Club, nor will the by-laws of this new association of Interior Department employes in Washington provide that colored employes shall be eligible for membership. The anti-liquor provision was adopted at a meeting yesterday afternoon in National Rifles Armory. The by-laws were not passed upon but, were ordered printed that they may be read by all members before the next meeting, which will be at call of the temporary president, Assistant Secretary A. A. Jones.

WILL VIE WITH TRADE UNIONISM

Secretary Wilson Pledges Department of Labor in Work.

TOILERS CRUSHED.

Power of Organized Capital Exerted To Prevent Revolt Against Unfair Conditions.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 13.—Secretary of Labor, Wm. B. Wilson, addressing the American Federation of Labor yesterday, bitterly condemned the attitude of the Michigan Copper Mining companies and warned them that a new conception of titles to property was in process of formation. He declared he would make public not only the wages paid to the miners, the hours they worked, and the labor conditions, but the enormous profits of the mine owners.

Mr. Wilson, who addressed the delegates ate "fellow unionists," said:

"The Department of Labor as now organized and directed will be utilized to cooperate with the great trade union movement in its effort to elevate the standard of human society.

"One of the general duties imposed on the department is that of promoting the welfare of wage workers.

"The one great specific duty imposed on the department is to act as mediator and to appoint commissioners of conciliation in trades disputes.

"There can be no mediation; there can be no conciliation between employers and employes that doesn't pre-suppose collective bargaining, and there cannot be collective bargaining that doesn't pre-suppose trade unionism."

Of the situation at Calumet, Mich., the secretary said it had heretofore been the custom to investigate wages, hours and conditions of labor and report. This time, he said, it had been determined to investigate also the earnings of the corporations involved.

"And the little bit of confidence that I am going to give you," he added "is that the largest corporation engaged in the production of copper in the Michigan district was organized in 1870 under the laws of the State of Michigan and that the face value of its capital stock is $2 500,000. The shares are $25 each. They were purchased at $12 each, so that the actual investment was $1,250,000.

"From that time until one year ago that corporation declared in dividends $125,000,00 0and made reinvisctments out of its earnings of $75,000,000. Nearly $200,000,000 of net profits in a period of forty-two years on an investment of $1,250,000, and then they not only protest against meeting committees of their workmen, but refuse to accept the good offices of the Department of Labor in negotiating the difficulty.

"They say their property is their own; that they have the right to do with it as they please. Those who take that position have a false conception of the titles to property."

NEW BUSINESS DEPARTURE.

The firm of M. Ruben & Sons, one of the oldest established business concerns of this city, announces today a new departure in their furniture business. BETTER MAIL SERVICE.

City Delivery Extended to Rosemont. New Sub Postoffice.

At the request of Congressman Charles C. Carlin today the postoffice department approved two important recommendations of Postmaster Eggborn of this city relative to the mail service. One was the establishment of city deliveries in Rosemont, two deliveries to be made each day. The second was the establishment of a new branch postoffice at the corner of Cameron and Payne streets.

Both of these improvements will go into effect as soon as the necessary arrangements can be completed.

WILL BRING NINE SONS.

Bishop Beverley Tucker to Witness Football Game.

According to the statements of a well known gentleman of this city, among those who will witness the Virginia-Georgetown football game on Saturday in Washington, will be Bishop Beverley Tucker of the diocese of Southern Virginia whose home is in Lynchburg. Bishop Tucker will be acompanied by his nine sons, the smallest of whom is said to be 6 feet, 2 inches in height. One of them is a student of the Theological Seminary of Virginia. Two are missionaries. Bishop Tucker is a brother-in-law of Lawrence Washington, formerly of this city.

THREW ROCKS AT RIVAL.

Negro Suffering From Jealousy Becomes Frantic.

Between 2 and 3 o'clock this morning Officers Talbot and Miller heard paving stones rattling at the intersection of King and Columbus streets, and upon hastening to that point found a row in progress between Jack Williams, an dJack Howard, both colored. Two young colored women were present, and, from what could be learned, the trouble originated from jealousy, Howard taking exception to Williams being the escort of one of the females. The quarternion were on their way from a ball, and Howard had been followed in their wake. The officers arrested the two men and they were brought before the police court this morning to answer the charge of disorderly conduct. Williams alleged that Howard had, without cause, hurled the paving stones at him and the women, but Howard said Williams had cursed him and put his hand into a hip pocket as though he was about to draw a pistol or a knife. At this juncture he threw the stones. Justice Caton fined Howard $5 and dismissed Williams.

EARLY START ON NEW ROADS.

Engineer Coming to Make Plans for Modern Highways in Fairfax.

At a meeting of the Mt. Vernon District Good Roads and Improvement Association, of Fairfax county, which was held last night in this city, it was announced by W. H. P. Reed, supervisor of the district that St. John Wilson, state highway commissioner, would send an engineer here within the next week or ten days to go over the roads of the district and prepare plans and specifications for the work of improving thirty three miles south of Alexandria, on which the county voted November 4th last to spend $116,000, $90,000 of which is to come from a bond issue on the district and the balance from the State of Virginia and the United States government. It is expected that work will be actually commenced on the construction of the roads early in the spring.

The association elected James W. Roberts, as president, and Edward S. Leadbeater as secretary and treasurer. A number of committees were appointed and each tax payer in the district will be invited to become a member of the association.

FAVORS MERGER OF MEDICAL SCHOOLS

Could Unite With Aid of Rockefeller Endowment Fund.

WILL PRESENT PLAN.

Charlottesville, Va., Nov. 13.—Although no official statement has yet been given out as to the result of the called meeting of the board of visitors of the University of Virginia, last night it was learned that the members went on record as favoring some plan which will be perfected later, to move the University medical School to Richmond and unite with the Richmond medical school under a Rockefeller foundation endowment of $2 000,000. It is understood that the board altered somewnat the proposal offered by the Medical College of Virginia at Richmond, and now awaits the approval of its revised plans by Richmond authorities before giving out any statement for publication. However, since the University has agreed to thegeneral plan, there is very little doubt but that the Richmond institution will acquiesce in whatever changes the board has made in the original proposal.

The new medical school, if the plans go through, will be a regular department of the University of Virginia, but located in Richmond. The Rockefeller foundation proposes to establish a first class medical school in every section of the United States, and Virginia has been chosen for the southern section. Because of its more central location, the donation was first offered to Vanderbilt, at Nashville, but on account of its connection with the church the Tennessee institution could not accept the proposition made by the foundation. Virginia was picked up as the next most desirable institution on which to place the endowment.

The gift will be made on the condition that the school be moved to Richmond, and that the requirements be raised to those of the present university medical department. After a few years the degree B. A. or B. S. will be required for admission.

It is as yet undecided as to whether the entire course will be removed to Richmond or only the last two years. Since the principal clinical work comes in the latter part of the regular medical training, it is possible that the first two years of the course will be kept in Charlottesville, but no definite plans have yet been made.

No final steps, it was stated, could be taken by the University of Virginia without the official sanction of the General Assembly, as the University is a State, institution, it is understood that committees representing the two boards of trustees are working out the full details of the plans, which will be presented as soon as the General Assembly convenes

FINDS SON 50 YEARS LOST.

Father Recovers Infant he Left to Enlist in Civil War.

Centralia, Ill., Nov. 13.—After a country-wide search lasting 50 years, John Waters, of Summit, N. J., found his son here.

At the opening of the civil war, Waters intrusted his son, a year old, to the care of a Mrs. Fitzpatrick, and then enlisted in the navy. She placed the child in an orphanage in Orange county, New York. When three years old the boy was brought West with a carload of other orphans and adopted by the family of Charles Jennings, of this place, with whom he lived until attaining maturity.

Then the son, who had assumed the name of James Fitzpatrick, began a search for his father. The two were joined by a daughter of Waters by his second marriage who had noticed her half-brother's advertisement in a New York newspaper.

ATTACKED BY A NEGRO.

The police of Washington are searching for a negro who last night attacked Miss Madge M. McMillan, of 1376 E. street N. E. on the street. It is believed to be the same man who the night before attacked Mrs. Louisa Brande, of 117 Third street. Lieut. Falvey, of the Ninth precinct, has detailed several men in plain clothes to hunt for the negro in that neighborhood, and the police all over the city have been furnished with his description.

Miss McMillan was walking to her home shortly before 7 o'clock, when at 14th and East Capital streets northeast the negro stepped from the shadow of a building and grabbed her right arm.

Miss McMillan used her free arm to punch him in the face, at which he let go and ran, the young woman shouting for help. He had disappeared, however, when Miss McMillan found a policeman.

The police are fairly certain that the man is the same who grabbed Mrs Brande by both arms Tuesday night at Maryland Avenue and 4th street. He is short and thick-set, dark-colored, wearing a dark coat, a little lighter than his trousers; a soft hat, with its rim turned down all round, and a white collar.

PRESIDENT WANTS PACIFIC SOLUTION

New Developments in Mexican Situation Causing Anxiety.

LIND LEAVES MEXICO.

Wilson Wants Congress to Remain in Session—War is said to be Nearer Now Than Ever.

Washington, Nov. 13.—President Wilson this afternoon recalled an announcement made earlier in the day that he would issue a statement covering the entire Mexican situation. There will be no statement for the present.

Five developments during the last twenty-four hours have brought the United States nearer to war with Mexico.

John Lind, President Wilson's personal representative has quit Mexico City following a tacit refusal on the part of Huerto to comply with a new demand from the United States.

President Wilson is said to have made known to Congress his desire that it should remain in session, even though there is now no prospect of passing the currency bill before the regular session convenes.

William Bayard Hale has opened definite negotiations with General Carranza, the leader of the Mexican constitutionalists in order to procure guarantees from the rebels before advising President Wilson to lift the embargo on arms.

Secretary of State Bryan has prepared newspaper correspondents in Washington for a definite announcement from President Wilson on the Mexican situation. This announcement is expected this afternoon, when the President has his regular Thursday conference with the newspaper men, although it is possible that the President will make the announcement by means of a message to Congress.

According to reports from Mexico city the feeling there is extremely intense, not only among foreign residents but among the Mexicans themselves. With the negotiations practically broken with the United States and with the European and Latin-American powers practically agreeing to the United States' intention to financially starving Huerta out of office, it is feared that the latter, rather than retire will resort to a spectacular and desperate effort to arouse the Mexican national pride against the United States, and call upon his countrymen for a war against the "gringoes."

It is stated in these dispatches that Mr. Lind presented the latest ultimatum to Huerta yesterday through Charge O'Shaughnessy. It took the form of a demand that Huerta back down from his intention of assembling the newly elected Mexican congress. Not only has the United States refused already to recognize the election of this congress, but it has stated in advance that it will recognize none of its acts.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

Something quite different to what Alexandria has been favored with has been established at the old Reed Wharf next to King street by Capt. Charles McKenney. Mr McKenney is the oldest riverman who claims the city as his home and still follows the fortunes of the Potomac. He has able vessels and a power launch which he will bring into requisition this winter again in order to supply the trade. He promises the public to furnish clean shucked oysters, of the best Potomac variety at 80 cents a gallon until Christmas week. His knowledge of the oyster and how to obtain the best will go a long way in creating a demand for the bivalves and making a successful business.

Eugene L. Dorsey, supervising inspector of the Sixth District, Steamboat Inspection Service, stationed at Louisville, Ky., yesterday was found guilty of pernicious political activity and inefficency. His resignation was requested by telegraph by Secretary of Commerce Redfield, with the approval of the President.

RELICS OF WASHINGTON.

Representative Austin Would Keep all Relics at Mt. Vernon.

Representative Austin, of Tennessee, has introduced a resolution in the house directing the heads of various executive departments to turn over to the Mt. Vernon Association, relics and souvenirs of George Washington the government may own. The purpose of the bill is to collect and exhibit at Mt. Vernon all the Washington relics.

There is considerable opposition to the Austin scheme because Mt. Vernon is not a fireproof building, and it is feared that in the event of a fire there many priceless relics of the first president would be destroyed.

MOVE FOR NEW HOSPITAL

Executive Committee Meets Last Night at Rooms of Chamber of Commerce

The movement recently organized for the purpose of raising funds for the erection of a new modern hospital building in Alexandria is receiving impetus, and those engaged in the work are meeting with the encouragement their efforts deserve.

Twenty-six of the thirty-five members of the executive committee of the Alexandria Hospital met last night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce and adoped the report of the special committee, of which W. B. Sarpot is chairman, with J. Y. Williams and J. M. Duncan and other members to be submitted to the board of trustees of the hospital at a special meeting next Tuesday night in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce at 8 o'clock. A. D. Brockett presided at the meeting.

The report of the committee, it is said, recommends practically a reorganization of the hospital on broader lines to meet the present and future needs of the city.

The board also commends the work of the management of the hospital from its organization in 1872 up to the present time.

Considerable interest was manifested at the meeting, and it is believed the efforts to raise the needed fifty thousand dollars will be successful.

RED MEN TO FEED 100.

Two Local Tribes Prepare Thanksgiving Dinner for Needy Children.

Plans for a dinner to be served to needy children under 12 years of age by the two tribes of Red Men in this city, have been completed. The dinner will be given on Thanksgiving Day, November 28th, between the hours of 12:30 and 2:30 o'clock. It will be held in the auditorium of the Young People's Building of the Washington Street Methodist Church South.

The serving of the dinner will be in the hands of a committee of wives and friends of the Red Men, of which Mrs. George E. Shelton, is chairman. This committee is now making up the list of children who will be invited to attend the dinner.

It is probable that several brief addresses will be made by pastors of the city and some form of entertainment furnished for the little guests.

The committee from the two tribes, Osceloa No. 1, and Seminole No. 35, is as follows: Walter S. Nicklin, chairman; C. M. Schwab, secretary; A. J. Butcher, treasurer and C. C. Brawner.

NEGRO'S BODY FOUND IN RIVER

The body of a colored man, about 50 years old, was found floating in the Potomac river yesterday afternoon a short distance below Alexandri by by Deputy Sheriff Blandford, of Prince George county, Md. In the pockets of the man's clothing were papers which led the Maryland city police authorities to believe that he is Richard Wilson, of Washington.

NEGRO SERIOUSLY CUT

Wesley Watkins, colored, employed at the Potomac Railroad yards, appeared in the police court this morning with his left eyeball cut, his nose split open and a bad gash on his cheek, and faced John Blanheim, colored, who he charged with using a razor upon him at the corner of Princess and Pitt streets about eleven o'clock last night. According to Watkins' version of the affair, he was wantonly attacked by Blanheim. The latter insisted, however, that he was the innocent victim of an assault by Watkins and another negro named Herman Jackson, who escaped.

Officers Rowlett and Norris came along and took charge of the injured man and later arrested Blanheim. They found a razor on him.

One witness testified that a fight had occurred between the trio and they were mixed up in the gutter when attention was called to them.

Justice Caton concluded to continue the case until Jackson shall have been arrested and ordered Blenheim and Watkins be held. That the latter was tended by Dr. Klipstein, who declares that Watkins' injuries are serious, as he is likely to lose the sight of his left eye.

Corporation Court Room Provided With New Furniture.

A number of improvements in the Corporation Court room were completed today under the direction of the public property committee of city council. A new carpet has been laid in the office of Judge L. C. Barley, and new chairs furnished for the jury and attorneys.

The furnishings of the Corporation Court have long been a disgrace to the community. Jurymen have been compelled to sit for hours in the most uncomfortable style of wooden chairs while the chair used by the Judge should have been relegated to the scrap heap years ago.

The new chairs are of a comfortable pattern and will be appreciated.

D. A. R.'S WANT OLD WILL.

Ask J. P. Morgan to Return Martha Washington's Testament.

A movement for the restoration of the stolen will of Martha Washington which has been set on foot by the Fairfax Chapter was approved by Mrs. Story and the conference of the D. A. R.'S in Richmond yesterday. The original Martha Washington will which was filed in the clerk's office of the Fairfax County Court, was stolen from the files many years ago. It is reported to be in the collection of manuscripts gathered by the late J. Pierpont Morgan, and Fairfax Chapter has addressed a petition to the financier's son asking that the valuable document be restored to its original depository.

FINE DIAMONDS

are the only form of investment most certain not to depreciate in value. They are pre-eminently the gift stone of modern times. Their intrinsic value and innate beauty place them first among gifts. Our diamond business has been built up in selling white flawless stones. Making a specialty of diamonds and diamond mounted jewelry, we put the cost to you considerably less than they can be bought elsewhere. Our prices are right as comparison will prove. Prices on diamonds have steadily advanced for over ten years, anticipating this we bought accordingly, and are selling them at last season's prices. We buy direct from headquarters and save you the middleman's profit. It will pay you to look our diamonds over. There is both pride and pleasure to either own or give one.

LAY DELEGATE DROPS DEAD.

W. G. Boggs, Member of Virginia Conference, Dies on Street.

Danville, Va., Nov. 13.—Just before the opening of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South yesterday morning, W. G. Boggs, of Newport News, a lay delegate, dropped dead on Main street, a short distance from the church where the conference is in session. Apoplexy was the cause of death.

The session yesterday was occupied largely with the reports of the 10 presiding elders, all of which indicated progress of the work. Many revivals were held last year, resulting in large numbers of additions to the church. There were increased contributions to the financial claims of the church, interest in Sunday school work has been quickened and many church buildings have been erected.

ARRESTS ARTER MILL STRIKE.

Chauffeurs in Truck Union Accused of Conspiracy.

New York, Nov. 13.—The recent strike of chauffeurs employed on mail trucks here, and the ensuing brief tie-up of sevice has resulted in the arrest of the president of the chauffeurs' union, a former president and five other officers and members. In addition warrants were sworn out for five men, who, it is alleged, had a hand in the strike.

All were charged with conspiracy to obstruct and retard the operation and movement of the mails, an offense punishable with a maximum prison term of two years and $10,000 fine.

Louis Terry, known as "Big Terry," former president of the union, and Patrick Johnson, said to be the union, present head, were among the first arrested. They and their companions were held in $5,000 bail each for examination Monday.

It is understood the arrests were made preparatory to the filing of indictments tomorrow by the federal grand jury.

Arthur Winham, an employe of the Postal Service Company, which has the mail contracts here, made a statement today. Federal officials said that some of the striking chauffeurs had threatened to use dynamite, and that he had seen two sticks of the explosive in the union headquarters.

6 YEARS FOR ESKIMO WOMAN.

Convicted of Manslaughter For Killing Soldier at Nome.

Leavenworth, Kas., Nov. 13.—Carrie Fon Sing, an Eskimo woman, 19 years old, has been received at the Kansas State penitentiary to serve a sentence of six years, imposed by the United States District Court of Alaska. She was convicted of manslaughter at Nome for killing a soldier.

This is her second imprisonment at the Kansas institution. She was released April 7, 1913, after completing a sentence of two years for assault with intent to kill.

The victim of that assault also was a soldier stationed at Nome.

NO VIOLATIONS OF ACT.

State Board of Pharmacy Submits its Annual Report.

Richmond, Nov. 13.—There were no violations of the pharmacy and drug act, during the year just closed, according to the ninth annual report of the State board of pharmacy, made to Governor Mann yesterday, though in several instances warnings were issued that unregistered practice must cease or prosecution would follow.

The board recommends to the executive that the law regarding the indiscriminate sale of laudanum be strengthened and calls attention to the fact that it is enforcing the new law giving it the right to revoke the certificates of any pharmacists who prove unworthy of holding them, through bad habits or otherwise. Two druggists are now on probation under this statute.

Since the last annual report fifty-nine pharmacies have passed the board; sixty-six failed and fourteen made the grade of assistant pharmacists. Certificates were granted also to thirty-six assistant registered pharmacists, forty-one having failed.

The board received in appropriation and fees $6,000, and of this sum distributed $5,416.14.

Annexation Wins.

Richmond, Nov. 13.—John B. Biley, Alderman from Lee Ward, hobbled into the Council chamber on crutches Tuesday night, and, with Alderman Neisen, of Jefferson Ward, who joined the majority at the last moment, helped to carry the much-debated annexation ordinance to victory by a vote of 9 to 3. The vote on concurrence was taken without debate, and in the presence of an audience that filled the chamber.

With the exception of a short discussion, which followed an attempt by Alderman Melton to secure the incorporation of an amendment submitting the whole question to the people for approval, the Board disposed of the important measure without debate.

Little Girl Burned.

Norfolk, Va., Nov 13.—Adeline Raper, the six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Raper, of B street, South Norfolk, was seriously if not fatally burned yesterday morning at 8:45 o'clock and the Raper residence had a very narrow escape from being destroyed. Mrs. Alice Raper left the house about the time and went into the yard, and during her absence she heard screams from her little daughter, who ran out of the house crying for help.

It is supposed that the child who was left in the house with three other children, got too near th stove and her clothing was ignited. A tub filled with clothes in the kitchen was also set on fire as well as the house which was slightly damaged.

When the child reached the yard the wind fanned the flames and before the fire could be extinguished her body was badly charred.

The injured girl is the oldest of four children.

In an altercation over a watch, Luigi Cicotta was shot dead yesterday evening and Motista Calloro is probably mortally wounded.

BANKS WORRY OVER INCOME TAXES.

The banks of Alexandria like those of all other cities in the United States are having their troubles in order to conform to the provisions of the income tax, which went into effect the first of this month. According to the law all bond coupons, interest coupons and other evidences of debt are subject to the provisions of the new tax. The banks are compelled to collect the tax and remit it to the internal revenue office unless the exemptions permitted by law are filed with the banks upon blanks furnished by the government. For instance if the holder of a mortgage for one thousand dollars on Alexandria property whose interest was payable on the first of November, placed the interest note for say six months interest, which at six per cent would amount to $30, for collection with an Alexandria bank, the bank would have to deduct one per cent of the $30 or thirty cents and remit same to the government unless the exemption permitted by the law was claimed At this time many of the banks are sending back all interest or bond coupons to the holders unless the exemption certificate is attached.

While the collections of the Alexandria banks of these kinds of items are comparatively small they cause a great amount of worry. In the big cities over the country investors, banks, trust companies and banking houses have been thrown into a frightful mess. The payment of November 1 coupons has been delayed to an enormous extent. It is estimated that not less than $40,000,000 of coupons payable on November 1, in New York City alone has been held up or delayed even to the present time. This spells real hardship to thousands of small investors, and throughout the country.

And as for the situation, with respect to foreign security holders, that, perhaps, is even more formidable. Every nonresident, be he Englishman or Frenchman or German, is technically unable to collect the money due him in the way of interest on November 1, unless he signs and files a government certificate. This is bad enough in the case of great foreign institutions which can handle this sort of red tape; but it is indefinitely worse in the case of the multitude of small foreign individual investors, to whom it is a real anxiety. Such investors have not unnaturally thought that the institutions through which they ordinarily do their business, or the American banks which act as agents for them, might have the permanent authority to sign the certificates for them, and thus secure their exemption. Not so! The rulings of the Treasury department at Washington are that each foreign investor must sign his own individual certificate, to be attached to his own individual little coupon

WOULD NOT HEAR MISS GORDON

Daughters of the Confederacy Averse To Politics in Organization.

New Orleans, La., Nov. 13.—United Daughters of the Confederacy deviated in their program long enough yesterday to refuse to accept greetings from the Southern States Woman's Suffrage Conference, or to invite Miss Kate M. Gordon, the conference president, to speak. It was declared upon the convention floor that the Daughters will not have politics of any sort injected into their organization.

The suffrage conference was organized by delegates to a Louisiana suffrage convention, which adjourned late yesterday afternoon. After the adjournment, Mrs. C. A. Cantrell, of Kentucky, offered a motion asking that Miss Gordon be invited to speak Mrs. Norman Randolph, of Virginia made a spirited address against such action and moved that the motion be tabled. Her motion was carried by a large majority.

Among interesting reports of officers submitted at the three sessions were those of the president-general Mrs. Alexander B. White, and of the historian-general, Miss Mildred Rutherford. Miss Rutherford said she had completed a history of disputed points of the War Between the States. As it had been impossible to arrive at a concensus of opinion on many incidents, she said, the new history is so arranged that readers may take their choice.

Mrs. White brought cheers when she read the portion of her report advising United Daughters of the Confederacy members to discontinue attempts to get pensions for Confederate soldiers from the government.

About 4,000 members were added to the ranks of the organization during the last twelve months, and soon a new state division—Colorado—is to be brought into the organization. Mrs. White reported. As a contrast to this record, more chapters have been dropped than in any year of the organization's history.

Mrs. White announced that Virginia, for the second time, had won the honor of gaining the most new members since the last convention.

The delegates were entertained at a musical from 4 to 6 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and last night, after a brief business session, a reception was given for them.

NEW CURE FOR NEURALGIA.

Baltimore, Nov. 13.—Dr. Joseph C. Bloodgood, associate in surgery at the Johns Hopkins Medical School has explained the operation perfected by Dr. Harvey Cushing for effecting a perfect cure of neuralgia.

"The operation," said Dr. Bloodgood, "is a great contribution to surgery. It makes impossible a recurrence of pain from neuralgia by killing the nerve which causes the pain and at the same time involves a less dangerous method of approaching the nerve centres. There are three nerves of the face which are involved in this pain. These lead to the ganglion cells, about as large as the point of your index finger at the base of the brain.

"It was the practice formerly, in cases of severe chronic neuralgia, to cut the nerve some distance from the ganglion cell, but it was found that this was usually followed by a recurrence of the pain within from one to three years. What Dr. Cushing has done is to find a new approach to the nerve. Instead of going into the head from the top and pushing aside the brain, he enters the skull at the base.

"If you put your hand at the back of your eye you will find two bones joined there. He follows the joining of these bones back to the base of the brain, makes a very fine opening there and is at once the seat of the trouble without exposing the brain at all. There the two nerves have been joined into one. One is the pain nerve, the other controls motion. Two surgeons of the University of Pennsylvania have devised the plan of dividing one of these nerves into two and permanently killing that part which carries pain."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Charged with poisoning the entire family of his wife so that he might inherit a $300,000 fortune, Patrick Ursery was arrested yesterday at Hazelhurst, Ga. Ursery, a prominent young buisness man, recently wedded Miss Mattie Ross, daughter of J. G. Ross, the wealthiest man in the state. Ursery and his bide, with the latter's father, and son, Ross, his wife and two children became ill and almost died. Ursery and his wife were not ill. Physicians say Ross and his family were poisoned with arsenic, and it is alleged Ursery put the poison in the food. It develops Ursery is financially involved, and it is alleged he told creditors to be easy, as he would soon control the Ross fortune.

Five masked men yesterday robbed the Union Bank of New Hazelton, British Columbia, shot the cashier, and escaped with $10,000 after a rifle battle with citizens.

JAPAN TO SEND CRUISER...

Three Thousand Subjects in Mex'co to be Protected.

Tokyo Japan, Nov. 13.—The Japanese government has decided to send the armored cruiser Izumo to Mexican waters for the protection of Japanese subjects in Mexico. Officials of the Japanese foreign office declare that the dispatch was merely a precautionary measure in case the situation there becomes critical. The following statement was made public:

Washington, Nov. 13. — Viscount Chinda, the Japanese ambassador, called on Secretary Bryan at the State Department late yesterday afternoon and informed him that the Japanese government had ordered the Japanese armored cruiser Izumo to proceed to the west coast of Mexico.

The ambassador explained that there was nothing political in the mission of the warship. He said the vessel's purpose would be merely to look after the safety and welfare of Japanese subjects a Acapulco and Maatlan and vicinity.

The Izumo has a displacement of 9,750 tons. She carrier four 8-inch and 12 6-inch guns in her main battery. She has a speed of 22 knots which is equivalent to more than 25 land miles.

ACTRESS RENEWS SUIT.

Laura Bigger Fighting For Million Left By Fourth Husband.

Jersey City, N. J., Nov. 13.—Vice Chancellor Griffith, sitting in chancery court today, took up the hearing of Laura Biggar Bennett, who at one time was a well known actress against the execution of the estate of her husband, Henry M. Bennett. When the settlement of the estate which was worth nearly $2,000,000 began, it was said that the actress agreed to accept $240,000 as her share, and has received a large part of this amount. She is now endeavoring to recover the remainder.

Laura Biggar's fight for the Bennett estate has for more than two years been sensational in the extreme. Starting life on the stage about twenty-five years ago, under William A. Brady's management Miss Biggar married an actor named Richardson, and after divorcing him was married to James Willis McConnell. Later she became the wife of Bert Haverly, an actor. While she was playing the "Widow in a Trip to Chinatown," she met Henry M. Bennett, millionaire owner of the theatres in Pittsburgh and Brooklyn.

Bennett even then was so old as to be decrepit. His attention to Miss Biggar resulted in trouble with her husband. As a result Haverly secured a divorce. Miss Biggar then left the stage, where she had made a most decided hit as Iza in "The Clemenceau Case," and became the nurse and companion of Bennett.

On April 11, 1902, Bennett died and Miss Biggar was left 60 per cent of his estate under his will. Not content with this settlement, Miss Biggar, who then called herself Mrs. Bennett, put in a claim for the entire estate on the grond that she was Bennett's widow. Following this claim charges of conspiracy were brought against her, together with Dr. Charles C. Hendricks, and Samuel Stanton, formerly justice of the peace in Freehold, N. J., where Miss Biggar was living at the time.

EASTERN DISTRICT OF VIRGINIA

United States of America to the use of Robert J. Kennedy, Plaintiff Vs.
Arthur Cowsill and the Pacific Coast Casualty Company, a Corporation, Defendants

Upon application of the plaintiff, it is ordered that all creditors of Arthur Cowsill who have furnished labor or materials to said defendant in connection with the construction of buildings and tanks for wireless telegraph station at United States reservation at Arlington, Va., for which final settlement by the United States was made December 28, 1912, as set out in the declaration filed in the above cause, be, and they are hereby made parties to this suit, and that they be and they hereby are, required to file their intervening petition herein as required by statute.

The object of this suit is to obtain a judgment against the defendant upon the bond given by them to the United States of America to secure the performance of the contract for the buildings and tanks for the wireless telegraph station at the United States Reservation, at Arlington, Virginia, and the prompt payment to all persons supplying labor and materials in the prosecution of said work in the penal sum of twenty one thousand dollars ($21,000.)

And it is further ordered that in order to give notice to such creditors if there are any, of their right to intervene in this cause, the above order shall be published in the Alexandria Gazette, a newspaper of general circulation published in Alexandria, Virginia, for three successive weeks, the last publication to be at least three months before the first of March 1914, rules to be held in the Clerk's office of the Said Court on the first Monday in March, 1914, which is limited as the time when creditors hereby made parties to this suit shall file their claims.

Witness the Honorable Edmund Waddill, Jr., Judge of the District Court of the United States, this 3rd day of November, 1913, and in the one hundred and thirty-seventh year of the Independence of the United States of America.

EARTHQUAKE IN PERU.

It is Thought That Several Hundred Men Were Killed.

Lima, Peru, Nov. 13.—Ten towns were destroyed and several hundred persons in an earthquake last Friday in the mountainous Peruvian province of Aymareas. News of the disaster reached this city by courier. The number of known dead was 120 when the couriers left the devastated district, but it was believed that several hundred more bodies would be recovered from the wrecked towns.

The survivors are living in the open spaces and are suffering great privations owing to lack of food and shelter.

The Government forwarded a large quantity of provisions and has appropriated relief funds.

Official telegrams report a continuance of the earthquake in the province of Aymareas, in the department of Apurimac. The city of Challhuanca, with a population of nearly 4,000, capital of the province, is reported in ruins.

A private telegram says that the deaths number more than 200.

GETS 20 DAYS FOR WINKING.

Two Others Who Flirted are Given Thirty Days Each.

New York, Nov. 13.—On evidence that he had winked at a salesgirl in the working room of a Sixth avenue department store, Daniel Sager was sentenced to 20 days in the workhouse by Magistrate House yesterday.

Two of 10 other young men arrested by detectives at the same time on charges of flirting were sentenced to 30 days each.

The other eight prisoners will be tried today after spending the night in jail in default of $1,000 bonds.

The arrests resulted from the complaint of a young woman who wrote to Police Commissioner Waldo that while on a shopping tour recently she had been insulted while resting in the waiting room of a department store. The detectives were assisted yesterday by several salesgirls who were assigned places in the waiting rooms frequented daily by young men. The crusade to eliminate the flirters, it was said, will be extended to other department stores.

BRIDAL GIFT OF $1,000,000.

Reported to Have Been Given to Mrs. William F. McCombs.

Washington, Nov. 13.—The interesting rumor spread through Washington society Tuesday that Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Leiter had given a bridal gft of $1,000,000 to Mrs. Leiter's sister, Mrs. William F. McCombs, wife of the chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who was married in London the other day.

This rumor is particularly discussed because it has been unofficially announced that Mr. McCombs, will now accept the post of ambassador to Paris, which has been held open for him for several months. It was said before Mr. McComb's marriage to Miss Dorothy Williams, a sister of Mrs. Leiter, that the reasons he did not accept the Paris post was because he could not afford it.

CAKE TO WEIGH 125 POUNDS.

Marvelous Ornament for Miss Wilson's Nuptial Feast.

New York, Nov. 13.—To the capable hands and artistic brains of Madame Blanche, maker of wedding cakes for the Roosevelts and other persons of fame and fortune, has been intrusted the responsibility of building the bridal cake that will ornament Miss Jessie Wilson's nuptial feast.

Todsy the foundation plinth was finished. It is twenty-two inches in diameter and seven inches high. Eighteen ingredients are combined therein, and it weighs sixty pounds.

The entire cake—a marvelous fabric—will weigh 125 pounds, and will represent an investment of $250 in spices, eggs, flour, sugar, fruit, labor, and so on. It will be finished on Thursday, and will be delivered by Madame Blanche personally.

POPE RECEIVES AMERICANS.

Rome, Nov. 13.—A large party of American bluejackets was received yesterday morning in private audience by Pope Pius. The men were conducted to the Vatican by Capt. William J. Maxwell, of the battleship Florida, and were presented to the pontiff by Mgr. Thomas F. Kennedy, rector of the American College in Rome.

The reception was held in the papal apartments instead of in the court of San Damaso. The Pope was robed in white, and was accompanied by the major domo of the Vatican and a detachment of Swiss guards. He spoke with the American officers, and imparted to them and to all the men the apostolic benediction.

The officers received in audience by the Pope numbered 9 and the blue jackets 125. Many of them carried religious objects which the Pope blessed.
